Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "a lap or fin seal extending perpendicular to the zipper" must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 14 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Regarding claim 14, it has not been adequately disclosed that the fin or lap seal is perpendicular to the zipper. The disclosure does support the perpendicular relationship. The term transverse by definition allows for variation from an exactly perpendicular relationship. This is a new matter rejection. The remaining claim is included since they stem from rejected claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 14 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over May et al (5,660,479) in view of Uramoto (RE 33,674). Regarding claim 14, May et al teaches the claimed structure but does not teach the sealed edges or the lap or fin seal being perpendicular to the zipper. Uramoto as seen in Figs. 2-5, teaches a similar bag with a zipper with side sealed edges where the seals are a lap seal and are perpendicular to the zipper as well as a bottom seal 16. It would have been obvious to employ the side seals and bottom seal of Uramoto in the bag of May et al to provide a way to close the sides and the bottom of the bag as taught by Uramoto. See Fig. Figure 2 and 4, of Uramoto where the side end seals are 12a and 12b. Uramoto also shows the bottom closed by seal 16. The top of May et al is sealed as seen in Fig. 6 and 7. SO the modified bag of May et al has seals at the top and bottom and both sides. The side seals are perpendicular to the zipper.

Response to Arguments

Applicant argues that the May et al in combination with Uramoto does not teach the claimed invention. This is incorrect. The bag of May et al as modified by Uramoto has a top seal as seen in Fig. 6 and 7 of May et al a bottom seal as seen in Fig. 3 of Uramoto and side seals as seen in Figs. 2 and 4 of Uramoto.

Applicant argues that it is inherent that the lap or fin seal of the instant invention is perpendicular to the zipper since the zipper is transverse to the machine direction and the fin or lap seal is along the machine direction. The transverse by definition allows for variations from an exactly perpendicular relationship.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
